Quality

We measure our suppliers consistently on a wide variety of metrics and hold them to our standards.

Value

We leverage years of experience in product sourcing and development to deliver high-quality, competitively priced products to a variety of industries. And our broad network of global relationships means we can deliver a comprehensive, reliable factory-to-door solution.

Sourcing expertise

Our global presence provides us insight into various risk factors that help us mitigate risk of disruption to the supply chain.

Custom products

We have the ability to adapt to a customer's unique needs by fulfilling that customer's private label requirements.

Supply chain proficiency

We define success as an order being accurate, hassle free, competitively priced, on time and conveniently delivered – and benchmark success at various stages.

Flexible delivery

We offer flexibility to meet the needs of customers while focusing on opportunities for cost savings.

Quality you can trust

You can rely on Cypress Medical Products LLC to meet stringent regulations around product quality. Our attention to quality is the foundation of our success – and is the reason some of the largest customers in the health care industry rely on us to provide their physician offices, long term care facilities and consumers with key medical products such as gloves and other equipment.

We put products through rigorous quality testing. In fact, our finished goods are inspected not only on-site at overseas factories, but also in the United States before they are released for use. We measure our suppliers consistently on a wide variety of metrics and hold them to our exacting standards.

Our factory audits meet the FDA's cGMP guidelines. Our gloves meet or exceed ASTM® standards.

Value

And value you can rely on

We're best known for serving the heavily regulated health care industry with products of exceptional quality and value, such as gloves and wound care products. But every day we leverage our broad network of relationships around the world and long history of sourcing and product development experience to deliver so much more.

We're in business to meet the product needs of a wide variety of industries, from hospitality to industrial manufacturing to scientific research and beyond. Our distribution channels include wholesale, retail and government. So when it comes to product sourcing on a global scale, and delivering high-quality, competitively priced products to a variety of industries in a manner best suited to each individual customer, we're in a league of our own.

Our relationships give you global reach

In our more than 25 years of experience, we've developed strong relationships with suppliers all over the world. We have staff located in Shanghai, Taipei, Malaysia, Ireland and Thailand. Combined with our U.S.-based sourcing associates – who travel more than 15 times a year to meet with our manufacturing partners around the globe – our team helps to provide quality while maximizing efficiency and speed of delivery.

The strength and depth of our supplier relationships also allow us to find new factories and products that can further streamline the supply chain while obtaining competitive costs for our customers.

Expertise

Custom
Products

Your private label is our specialty

When you need a custom product solution, Cypress has the capabilities to deliver. From product to development to package design, we have extensive experience making custom products for companies in a wide range of industries.

In addition to delivering our own branded products, we have the ability to adapt to your unique needs by fulfilling your private label requirements, depending on volume. We support many high-volume customers with a wide range of private label solutions – as well as customer-specific products such as pocketless lab coats for the pharmaceutical industry.

Our supply chain is built for success

Cypress defines success as an order being accurate, hassle free, competitively priced, on time and conveniently delivered. We've built our entire supply chain to deliver on each aspect of this goal. We benchmark success at various stages of each order's progression and can provide communication with customers that removes the element of surprise from the ordering process.

By working with you to understand your supply chain requirements, we can help build a comprehensive plan to meet your needs.

We bring you more flexibility

Every customer's delivery needs are different. So we work with you to determine the best method of delivery – while focusing on opportunities for cost savings.

A wide range of options is available. Our Container Direct model allows us to ship product from overseas directly to your warehouse for meaningful savings. Full Truck Load and Less Than Truck Load delivery choices give you access to flexible shipping directly from our U.S. distribution center. Drop Ship Solutions are also available if you need to send small orders anywhere in the U.S.

Gloves you'll love, and so much more

We work with over 75 factories in more than 10 countries to bring you these high-quality products and more.
